Dear Master

I have just heard from Sir Charles Stamford that you will be coming over again to visit this land, next fall; & that I will have the joy of hearing you conduct at the Leeds Festival.

How lovely it will be to see you & dear
M^{rs} Grieg again, & to hear it all!

I have been a little ill but am now well again.

I only wanted to let you know how deeply glad I am at the chance of seeing you both again.

My mother joins me in heartfelt greetings to Mrs Grieg & yourself Yr ever thankfully & affectionately

Percy Grainger
