My dear Sir

I am an intense
admirer of your Songs
of which I sing many
with delight.

It would be to me a
great joy if you would allow me to sing some
to you, any time & any day you like, either
here or in London

if you will give me
one or two day's notice

This request may,
perhaps, seem impertinent
to you, but I trust you will forgive it when you realize it comes from a

sincere admirer
of your music
